Welcome Our New CEO

We would like to welcome Robert "Bob" Clark as our new President and CEO. Bob took over as our leader in March. He is an Owensboro local born and raised in our part of the Bluegrass, and attended Owensboro Catholic High School and Brescia University. Bob brings more than 30 years of experience in the financial industry. He has served in various roles including loan officer, loan operations, compliance and internal auditing.

Bob has been married for 29 years to his wife Heather, who is a retired teacher from Hancock County Schools. They have one son, Mason, who is married to his wife Karli and they live in Chicago. Bob and Heather have 7 cats still living at home, so they are not total empty nesters.

I am excited to be a part of this great Credit Union. I look forward to meeting members and getting to know you better. We will continue the rich tradition that the credit Union has established in our community and build on that success. My goal will always be putting members' needs first and finding ways to serve you and your family better.

It is an honor to serve as your CEO. - Bob Clark

We also want to congratulate and thank Cindy Shanks for her dedication and service to the Credit Union. Cindy retired in March.
