CEO's Message

While many of us consider the new year a time for making resolutions and getting in shape, it's also the perfect time to take a closer look at your finances. Whether you spent a little too much this past holiday season or really want to remodel your home this year, taking inventory of your finances is the place to start.

From many savings options like our Christmas Club, IRAs and Certificates, to services like our Mobile App, we have what you need to help make those financial goals a little bit easier to achieve. I encourage you to take the time to make a budget and make this the year that you get your finances in shape and better organized.

Visit our web site, www.greenriverafcu.com, and you will find all the services we offer and ways we can help you and your family members. Your Credit Union was founded on "people helping people" and we stand true to that in the services we offer and how we treat our members. Here, you are not just a number...you are family.
